About Dr. Ramaprabha Yerramilli:

Dr. Ramaprabha Yerramilli is a professional Carnatic musician.

She hails from a musical family, her mother being her first guru, introduced her to Bhajans and karnatic vocal excerpts from early childhood. Later she received formal training from Sri Kakaraparthi Veera Bhadrarao garu, Late Sri Nethi Srirama Sharma garu and Sri Seshachari garu.

She holds a Ph.D in music from Padmavathi Telugu University for her thesis "Melodic structures in Dikshitar compositions with reference to different talas". She has pursued her M.A (Music, Karnatic Vocal) from Potti Sriramulu Telugu University and Diploma (Karnatic Vocal) from Andhra University.

At every point, she wanted to share the rich knowledge of karnatic music she pursued and hence took up teaching as a profession. With about two and a half decades of teaching experience till date she can handle teaching karnatic music from basic level to Ph.D level.

Profession:

She is presently the principal of Andhra Mahila Sabha College of fine arts and media education (O.U Campus, Hyderabad). She pursues teaching alongside administration with the philosophy based on real life experiences, hence delivering soulful music lessons to her students.
